

Environment and History

Volume 17

February 2011

Number 1

Special Issue: Uncertain Environments

Edited by UWE LÜBKEN AND CHRISTOF MAUCH

Uncertain Environments:

Natural Hazards, Risk and Insurance in Historical Perspective
UWE LÜBKEN AND CHRISTOF MAUCH 1

Forestation and its Discontents: The Invention of an Uncertain
Landscape in Southwestern France, 1850–Present
SAMUEL TEMPLE 13

'Risky Business':

Disease, Disaster and the Unintended Consequences of Epizootics in Eighteenth- and Nineteenth-Century France and Germany
DOROTHEE BRANTZ 35

Disciplining the Earth:

Earthquake Observation in Switzerland and Germany
at the Turn of the Nineteenth Century
ANDREA WESTERMANN 53

US Weather Bureau Chief Willis Moore and the Reimagination of Uncertainty in Long-Range Forecasting
JAMIE L. PIETRUSKA 79

Race, Class and Gender Disparities in Clara Barton's
Late Nineteenth-Century Disaster Relief
MARIAN MOSER JONES 107

From an Act of God to an Insurable Risk:

The Change in the Perception of Hailstorms and Thunderstorms
since the Early Modern Period
FRANK OBERHOLZNER 133

From Wood to Stone:

The Risk Management of Swiss Re in The Sundsvall Fire 1888
ELEONORA ROHLAND 153

Sharing the Risk of Hail: Insurance, Reinsurance and the Variability of Hailstorms in Switzerland, 1880–1932

FRANZ MAUELSHAGEN 171

SOCIETY PAGES 193