

Environment and History

Volume 18

February 2012

Number 1

EDITORIAL

STEPHEN MOSLEY 1

FEATURES

Claiming the New North:
Development and Colonialism at the Pine Point Mine,
Northwest Territories, Canada
JOHN SANDLOS AND ARN KEELING 5

Endangered Species and Threatened Landscapes in Appalachia:
Managing the Wild and the Human in the American Mountain South
DREW A. SWANSON 35

Renarrating a Biological Invasion:
Historical Memory, Local Communities and Ecologists
KAREN MIDDLETON 61

Storm Hazard and Slavery:
The Impact of the 1831 Great Caribbean Hurricane on St Vincent
S. D. SMITH 97

The Politics of the Golden River:
Ruskin on Environment and the Stationary State
GRAHAM A. MACDONALD 125

BOOK REVIEWS

John M. MacKenzie, *Museums and Empire: Natural History, Human
Cultures and Colonial Identities* (JAMES BEATTIE) 151

David Foot, Woods and People: Putting Forests on the Map
(CHARLES WATKINS) 153

SOCIETY PAGES 155