CORRECTIONS: On page 239 of the Spring 2014 issue (Vol. 88, No.2), there is a sentence that reads, "Organic dairying emerged with the transformation of the conventional dairy industry in the United States following World War II." This sentence should have read, "The emergence of organic dairying is rooted in the transformation of the conventional dairy industry in the United States following World War II." Also, on page 247, Bangor, Michigan, was incorrectly identified as Bangor, Maine. The journal staff regrets the errors.
